2	Erstavik 26:1	Erstavik 26:111	 The diagram shows a blue rectangular area labeled '2' situated between two pink lines representing boundaries. The area above the top pink line is labeled '26:1' in red text, and the area below the bottom pink line is labeled '26:111' in red text. The top boundary is a slightly curved pink line, and the bottom boundary is a straight pink line. The left and right boundaries are also pink lines.

7	Erstavik 26:117	Erstavik 26:1	 Diagram showing a yellow rectangular plot labeled 26:117. The plot is bounded by a pink line. A red line labeled 26:1 runs along the top edge of the plot. A black number 7 is written inside the plot. Two red lines extend downwards from the plot, likely representing boundaries or easements.
8	Erstavik 26:118	Erstavik 26:1	 Diagram showing a yellow rectangular plot labeled 26:118. The plot is bounded by a pink line. A red line labeled 8 runs along the top edge of the plot. A black number 8 is written inside the plot. A red line extends downwards from the plot. A grey rectangular area is shown below the plot, possibly representing a building or another plot. A red line labeled 8 runs along the bottom edge of the plot.
